"At the time we made the first Korn album everyone told us we were so heavy and so unorthodox that we would never get on the radio, never sell a million records," said Jonathan Davis of Korn. "But, we could feel the audience feed off the emotion behind the music, and we knew those fans made us unstoppable! And, so many fans who never had the chance to see us back then deserve a chance to see it now, as we celebrate its 20th birthday. EPICENTER is going to be so special! I can't wait to do it at the Forum!!!"

"When So. Cal shouted 'WE WANT EPICENTER,' we listened," said Rich Best, Senior Vice President of Booking for Live Nation/So-Cal, "Epicenter is back --bigger and better than ever-- with a new home in the newly-renovated 'Fabulous' Forum. Take a great brand, the greatest live music venue arena in the world and a line-up that music fans have waited fifteen years for and you get one epic night of music!"
